Overview:
The paper was first published twice a week with circulation of 5,000 and currently it is published three times weekly - Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The paper is purely in Khmer printed in black and white with four page lengths and a circulation of 6,000 copies. It is being operated by 12 staff.

The paper is affiliated to and funded by the Cambodian People Party (CPP) and is used by the party to print the party propaganda. It claims that it is allowed to write articles that are critical of lower level of CPP officials who engaged in wrongdoings. The paper also picks up some advertisement, but the rate is negotiable due to the fact that operation is based on the party's budget.
